Our class of '67 climbed three flights of stairs every morning and wondered why seniors are not given the first floor.

Not only was academic competition accompanied by anticipated college acceptances but also by athletic competition ending in an outstanding record. Spurred on by Janet, Julie, and the pet cannon, our Caps won the Eastern 4A Football Championship, and we raced through an exciting basketball season.

Then there was the mighty duo of Rogers and Rowland who organized the endless events of the seniors. Homecoming was a spectacular one with our three lovely sponsors—Bettie, Andy, and Ann. Then it was "Positively pigtime" and "Oh Barbecue."

The scene shifted from barbecue to fairyland enchantment—a picture of Queen Andy, Maid Janet, and three tiny mascots around a sweetheart tree.

Then—the senior prom . . . invitations . . . caps and gowns . . . graduation . . . final good-byes . . . tears . . . freedom . . . and . . . memories. . . .

Each of the 776 students in the junior class have made the second year at Broughton easier and more fun. Brafford, Cherry, Mitchell, and Sprunt have helped in slowly getting to assemblies and quickly leaving. Leach, Mallard, Jones, and Brafford were with the Caps as they went to the Eastern 4A football championship. Throughout football and basketball Lois, Stephanie, Tricia, and Margaret cheered the teams to victory.

From the wild crowds of the sports events to the softness and wonder of the Queen of Hearts—Muffie, Kris, and Mary represented the beauty of the junior class.

"Eatsa our Pizza" and "Pamper your Palate with a Pizza" ignited a successful pizza dinner and handsome profits as well as good times. The Junior Prom was really an "Inferno" of activity and fun for all. The music of the Embers added fuel to the fiery night. The mighty seniors really met their match in a March encounter in the Junior-Senior Olympics.

Yes, Juniors, it has been another wonderful year at Broughton. We struggled through Merit Scholarship Tests, P.S.A.T.'s, etc.—but we made it. It's almost impossible to believe our senior year could be any better or more fun but next year—

Broughton is Sophomores

Dale Lewis, Nancy Iler, Eric Spinella, Sara Ann Newbold, Chris Woody.

DALE LEWIS ..... President
ERIC SPINELLA ..... Vice-President
SARA ANN NEWBOLD ..... Secretary
NACY ILER ..... Treasurer
CHRIS WOODY ..... Sergeant-at-Arms
MR. BRAGG ..... Advisor

As an important unit of Broughton, the 1966-1967 sophomore class constitutes more than one-third of the total student body. A first year at anything can prove difficult, but to play so large a part in something that really matters is more than duty; it is a privilege.

What more can one class ask for than an undefeated football team, a great float in the Homecoming parade, and a most successful candy sale which was not ruined by the tempting snow. Peggy, Mary, Buddy, and Toddy have served us well as marshals at all the "stand-up-for-the-seniors" assemblies. Susan, Jeanette, and Sara Ann represented us in the beautiful Queen's court in February.

Yes, a sophomore is a beginning. It's a beginning of working, of learning, and of living. There are many sides to a sophomore. There's the shy, scared side. There are the friendly smiles, eager for new friends. There's the volunteering side, begging to become a part.

At first Broughton was just big, cold, and scary. But now, after the first year, it has become warm, friendly, and promising. We are truly a part of Broughton. We are the Sophomores.

Needham B. Broughton Student Service Council

Serving Broughton through its council committees, the Student Council strives for the betterment of the school by raising school spirit, promoting leadership, and coordinating student activities. The council consists of 5 officers, 25 executive members, and 84 homeroom representatives. It meets once a month.

The special projects of the Student Council are varied. This year it sponsored the Homecoming activities, the Snowball Dance, the Talent Show, and the Junior-Senior Olympics. Also the council sponsored several out of town bus trips so that the students could support the Caps away from home.

The fact that membership is limited to a select few makes induction into the Service Club the highest non-scholastic honor at Broughton. The organization exists for the purpose of recognizing those students who have rendered outstanding service to our school. New members are voted into the club at approximately the middle of each semester. Seniors are eligible in the fall, while seniors, juniors, and faculty members may be inducted in the spring. Included in the activities of the club is a picnic in the spring.

Assisting at school assemblies is only one of many services performed by Broughtons sixteen marshals. They also aid at plays, concerts, and graduation. Under the leadership of Mrs. Harkins and Mr. Blackburn, the marshals meet as often as necessary before school events.

In 1951, with the help of Mrs. Peacock, a Broughton student organized a club in which the students could discuss each other's works and eventually select works for publication. The student body chose the name Wingéd Words which is taken from Homer's Odyssey, "and Athena spoke in wingéd words." A magazine by the name is published in the spring.

Each Wednesday the club meets to discuss the manuscripts which the students have submitted. Often the members meet at a student's home or Mrs. Peacock's to hear guest speakers.

Several students have received honors by having their works published in the state magazine Good Writing.

LATIPAC '66-'67 began the 37th year of publication last spring with graduation pictures. The following three months were filled with ideas and visits to Edwards & Broughton printers. After nine months overflowing with class pictures, schedules, deadlines, unidentified pictures, layouts, proof-reading, and tiresome and frustrating soliciting of advertisement, the LATIPAC '67 rolls off the presses as a reality.

The purpose of the LATIPAC '67 is to present a "history book" of the past year for every student who subscribes. The twenty-nine students of the core class work with all the interest journalism classes to write copy, sell advertisements, identify pictures, and handle individual portraits. Under the leadership and patient guidance of Miss Laura Helen Paschal the LATIPAC '67 emerges in the spring presenting, realistically and lastingly, most of the events of the past year that help to answer the question "What is Broughton?"

National Forensic League

The National Forensic League is a nation-wide school organization organized many years ago to promote better speaking habits, develop skills and abilities in speaking before audiences in such various activities as debate, oral interpretation, drama, after dinner speaking, original oratory, and extemporaneous speaking. Mrs. Margaret Wooten works with those students who do work in non-debate fields and, in conjunction with her classes, helps students who may be trying out for speech contests in various areas. Contests are sponsored by varying organizations throughout the country each year and Mrs. Wooten encourages students to become involved in these. Her work with dramatics and plays is also a part of forensic work and it involves the same general types of skills.

Mr. Beenen works solely with the debate group and this year there is both a varsity and a novice team. This is the first time in many years this has been done at Broughton, and it was done to provide debating experience for more than just the four on the varsity team and to guarantee that in the following year there will be some experienced debaters who can step in and possibly take the place of the varsity debaters who have graduated. Consequently, all those on the novice team are juniors. The varsity team is the only one that enters local, district, and state competition. Only one team from a school is allowed to enter competition, but in some cases—as when the club goes to Wake Forest College—novice teams from other schools will have an opportunity to debate with the one from Broughton. The N.F.L. plans to take both the varsity and novice teams and to do practice debates with several of the schools in the Raleigh area such as with Garner, Cary, Millbrook, and Enloe.

Fun, excitement, and hard work come with The Little Theatre, whose purpose is to provide training and experience for those interested in live theater, along with at least one yearly production. The Little Theatre evolved because some people with an interest in dramatics formed together to present a school production. Now, The Little Theatre is not only busy with the productions, but also workshops which take them to Chapel Hill, Louisburg, and Winston-Salem. A picnic ends the wonderful year.

Y-Teens

Over 150 Broughton girls have identified their goals for life as: 1.) growing as a person; 2.) growing in friendship with people of all races, religions and nationalities; 3.) growing in the knowledge of God. Each of these girls belongs to one of the four divisions of Y-Teens. At Broughton these divisions include G.A.G.'s, T.I.P.'s, J.O.Y.'s, and S.O.S.'s. Governing all of these clubs is the Y-Teen Interclub Council, headed by Stephanie Waddell and advised by Mrs. Mark Boone.

Few clubs at Broughton offer as much variety as do Y-Teens. Their service projects involve such activities as the tutoring of underprivileged children, the sponsoring of a club at the Blind School, volunteer service at Rex Hospital, the dressing of dolls at Christmas, and the "adopting" of needy children. On the Y-Teen social calendar are teas, picnics, a Christmas and spring dance, a trip to Washington for Seniors, and the hanging of the greens in December. To earn money for these activities, Y-Teens sponsor potato chip, homemade cookies, and doughnut sales.

A completely open organization, Y-Teens may be joined by any girl at Broughton.

VOCAL ENSEMBLE

Providing the highest type of musical experience for Broughton's most gifted singers is the purpose of the Vocal Ensemble. The thirty-six members meet every day as a core class. It was organized as an actual ensemble of about eighteen members in the early 1950's but has grown to chorus size.

It is really an experience to be in the Vocal Ensemble, for the group performs for many exciting events. The ensemble sings for civic clubs, conventions, banquets, and the Broughton Little Theatre Musical, which is the way of making money. It also participates in the Honor Society inductions, and performs for junior high schools in the area. The ensemble sings in the district music contest in Durham, and the North Carolina State Choral Music Festival. The vocalists also usher for all concerts of the Raleigh Concert Music Association at Memorial Auditorium.

Marching Band

The Broughton Marching Band, being a voluntary organization, consists of members from the Symphonic Band, Varsity Band and Orchestra. Participating students are members only because they enjoy marching, going on trips and being associated with the activities of the band. The band was chosen to represent the University of South Carolina at the dedication football game at Carter Stadium. The fifty-six members boosted student spirit in eleven football games. They played in two homecoming parades and the Raleigh Christmas Parade.

The Band Council Members include: Lewis Brown, John Fleming, Laura Wooldridge, seniors; Fred Kelly, Dock Kornegay, juniors; Ruth Barnes, Roy Heimbach, sophomores. Mr. Larry Tynes is the advisor to the Marching Band. The excellent performances of the group may be attributed to their extensive practicing before school every morning during football season.

Needham B. Broughton was one of the twenty high schools around the country selected by the Air Force in 1966 for a pilot Junior ROTC (Reserve Officers Training Corps) program. The intent of the program is to interest young men in service in the Air Force upon graduation from high school or, upon entering college, to participate in college Air Force ROTC programs. Students who complete the course may enlist in any one of the armed forces with one stripe upon graduation from high school or will have their first year of ROTC waived if they attend college.

Broughton's ninety-five cadets, in addition to attending class three days a week and drilling, have visited different airbases this year, including Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in Goldsboro. The cadets' advisor is Lt. Colonel Rozakis.

Majorettes

Head Majorette: Janet Mustard

Every morning and every afternoon, the majorettes can be seen practicing with the marching band. These practice sessions precede their performances at Broughton football games. Service to the school and representing Broughton in the Christmas parades of the city and the homecoming parades of Broughton and North Carolina State University are the main purposes of the group.

The six girls chosen as majorettes are selected with no regard to class. These girls must maintain an 82.5 average. They select among themselves the senior they want as Head Majorette. Mrs. Ketcham is the advisor to the baton-twirling group.

Thus to render thee our praise.

GREATNESS IS NEVER FORGOTTEN

Another football season has come and gone. Another Cap team has had its play; but something about the Broughton football team of 1966 will make it hard to be forgotten.

That something could be the impressive record that the Caps rolled up. Winning eleven games while losing only one. The team captured the Eastern AAAA crown and earned the recognition as being the best high school team in the state. Characterized by an almost immovable defense, hard-running, and enough passing to keep the opponent guessing, the Caps were able to score almost 260 more points than their opponents, which included some of the tougher teams in the state. This record will not be forgotten.

That something could also be the stars that played football on the 1966 Caps. Three Caps, Randy Stowe, Al Godwin, and Lee Coleman, made the All-East team. Al Godwin and Drew Wood played in both the Shrine and East-West Bowl games. Drew was also named to some All-State teams. A number of the seniors have signed or will sign football scholarships to various colleges. Dave Gardner, Charlie Baker, and Al Godwin already have their college years well taken care of. These great players will not be forgotten.

That something could also be the dedication and hard work that the Caps displayed. Sweating out many a practice during the summer months, the boys had to get in shape fast. Many long hours had to be spent memorizing plays and moves for a new offense and defense. When school started, they still had practice and also had the extra burden of maintaining good grades. This they all did because these boys wanted to play together as a team, a never-say-die attitude, and confidence in themselves, their coaches, and their teammates, that the 1966 Caps were able to achieve greatness. Their accomplishments and their spirit will never be forgotten.

HOMECOMING 1966

Homecoming 1966 included varied activities in accordance with the football game November 4, with Durham: a parade on the afternoon of the fourth, special half-time ceremonies; and a dance Saturday night November 5. Bobby Zaytoun was in charge of the homecoming parade, which traveled from the Broughton athletic field, through downtown Raleigh, and back to the school grounds. Eighty-five registration slips were requested. Bob Walker directed the judging of the floats and awarded $15 and $10 to the first and second place winners, respectively, in both the float division and the car division. After the parade Tom Dimmock and Ken Atkins directed the dismantling of the floats and the cleaning up of the athletic field.

Sponsors for homecoming were presented at the half-time activities. They were: Junior class, Gloria O'Neal; Sophomore class, Snowy Albright; Varsity football team, Andy Cohoon; and Junior varsity football team, Jeanette Byrum. Also, Durham was represented by a sponsor from both the Student Council and the Varsity football team. Vicki Gauthier and Johnny Alexander were co-chairmen of the sponsors committee.

Half-time activities this year provided a refreshing (and glamorous) break in a tense football game. Chairmen Andy Cohoon, Lewis Brown, and Judy Lloyd had, in addition to the presentation of the sponsors, a spectacular program by the marching band.

Martha Davis and the Hospitality Committee made the traditional yellow chrysanthemum corsages.

The activities came to a climax Saturday night with a dance held in the boys gym. The Aqualands from Charlotte played and everyone who attended enjoyed their music from 8:00 to 11:00.

George Hearn was overall chairman for Homecoming 1966 and provided a successful and enjoyable celebration for all.

Pearl Harbor Day

The patriotic committee of the Student Cooperative Committee of the Student Council presented a memorial program to honor the men killed at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941.

Lt. Col. Jack Finan, who was at Pearl Harbor on that fateful day 25 years ago, spoke. Mike Thompson presided. There were also 2 student speakers, Laura Wooldridge, and George Hearn. The four branches of the Service were represented by color guards.

Karen Schmeitzel, head of the Student Cooperative Committee, was in charge of the ceremonies with the aid of her committee and Mr. Peter Beenen.

MASCOTS—Betsy Barringer, Jay Hardison, Patty Pickard

They say there's a tree in the garden,
A tree that will give you a sign.
Come along with me
To the Sweetheart Tree
Come and carve your name next to mine.

They say if you kiss the right sweetheart
The one you have been waiting for
Big blossoms of white
Will burst into sight
And your love will be true evermore.

From the Archway of roses, past the sweetheart tree, and then to her throne . . . all eyes were on Andy Cohoon, the queen of our hearts! The assembly, in honor of her on February 17, began with Master of Ceremonies, Dale Van Horn, setting the mood by singing, "The Sweetheart Tree." Tracing the beauty of the garden around the tree in spring, summer, and fall, Dale presented the sophomore, junior, and senior members of the court. Sophomores Sara Ann Newbold, Janette Byrum, Susan Edwards; Juniors Muffy Sprunt, Mary Shephard, Kris Smith; and Seniors Jane Berry, Rosalyn Brown, Ann Barringer, and Diane Dixon were escorted by Toddy Twiner, Andy Wilkinson, Rhody Dillon, Jim Oliver, Andy Caldwell, John Martin, Randy Gill, Phil Greer, Bob Walker, and Skeeter Garison respectively. Receiving a place of honor on the sweetheart tree was our Maid of Honor Janet Mustard. Maid Janet was escorted by Jimmy King. Then came the highlight of the assembly as Queen of Hearts Andy Cohoon was presented. Escorting the radiant queen to her throne was Senior Class President David Rowland. Helping the Queen with her train and crown were Patty Rickard, Betsy Barringer, and Senior Class Mascot Jay Hardison. After the coronation, the Queen and her court were entertained by Joan Powell, the Gene Hargrove Trio, Wade Holland, and Cathy Sterling.

Saturday night the members of the court were honored at a dance. The dance, which was sponsored by the Senior Class, carried out the theme of "The Sweetheart Tree." Entertaining the court at the dance were Elaine Privett; Marie Zaytoun; a Barber Shop Quartet of Dick Holoman, Neal Sasser, David Kline, and Walt Ferrell; and Margaret Poyner. Music for the dance was provided by the Embers. Assisting Sheryl Dicon, chairman of the dance, were the following chairmen: Nancy Helms, refreshments; Rita Pollard, tickets; Vicki Gauthier, entertainment; Marie Sharpe, publicity; and Arabelle Plonk, decorations. Chairmen for the assembly were Parks and Boyd Stewart. Helping them were Linda Kerr, flowers, and Ann Barringer and Steve Lloyd, escorts.

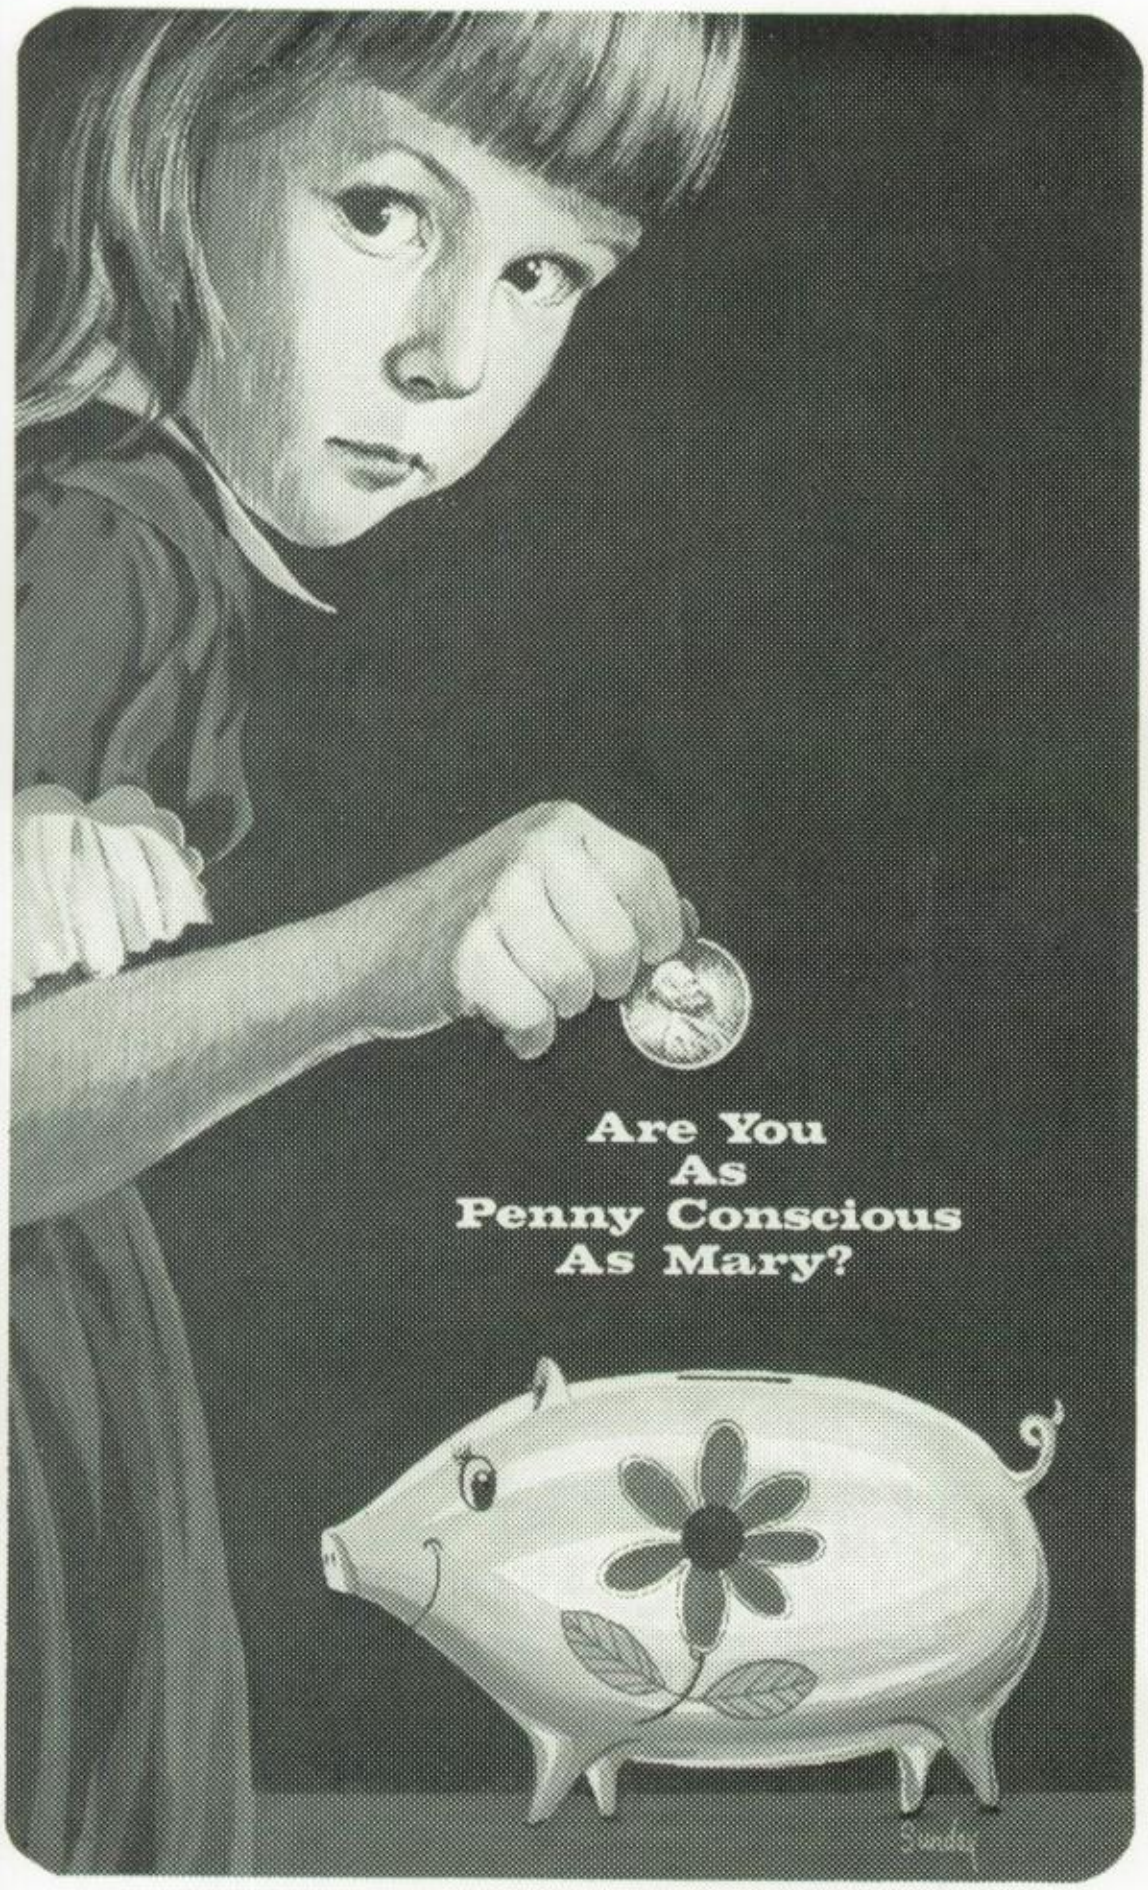
Barbara D.: What is dark underneath, white on top, and very warm in hot weather?
Nancy D.: A wolf in sheep's clothing.

If you think there are no new frontiers, watch a boy ring the front doorbell on his first date!



To a little girl like Mary a few pennies may seem to be a lot of money. In her world a penny will buy things she wants. Things such as a piece of candy or gum or a balloon.

Mary is penny-conscious. Even so, she may not realize that a penny spent for electricity now will buy more than half again as much electric service as a penny did 25 years ago when her Mom was a little girl. Or that in Carolina she gets more electricity for a penny than most people who live other places in the United States.

The average price which CP&L customers pay for electricity they use in their homes is about 22 percent below the national average.

How has CP&L been able to keep the price of electricity coming down while most other things have been going up? By installing larger, more efficient generating plants; by adopting improved methods of transmitting and distributing electricity; and by working hard to introduce every reasonable economy, so that your penny will buy more.

(No response from Jeff.)

Sammy: Do you think anyone can predict the future with cards?
Stevie: My mother can. She takes one look at my report cards and then tells me exactly what will happen when my dad comes home.

One father, holding out under his youngsters' campaign for color television, found this sign on his porch: "See the only black-and-white television in the neighborhood—25¢!"

Frankie Arnold
Editor-in-Chief

Broughton Is . . . . .

For six months students venturing into 114 have seen a sober, black and white sign in the front of the room asking the unanswerable question of only two words—"Broughton is . . .?" Through the LATIPAC '67, the journalism classes have tried to answer that question but have found there will never be a complete definition. We really worked hard to include everything that composes Broughton but could never capture all the spirit that fills her austere halls and energetic people. As each person gains something from his experience with Broughton, so does Broughton gain from each person. One cannot leave Broughton without taking a part of her with him and leaving a part of himself behind. The senior, of course, is the richest, for he has experienced three years here and has been prepared to enter the new world of college life. Everything gained is intangible but most important and real. The junior is just beginning to feel at home and have a true closeness to Broughton. Next year will be the last. The sophomore, after a year of harrassment, is ready to really belong. Spirit is high and enthusiasm unlimited. We hope that through the LATIPAC '67 you can find something that will make you stop and think and remember—"That is Broughton"—and be glad and grateful you were a part.

Before I leave, I have so many people to thank for their time and effort in helping to make this annual possible for you:

The hard working and indispensible interest and core journalism classes, who spent hours on ads, identifying pictures, writing copy, and drawing layouts. . . .

George Hearn, faculty editor, and Barbara Ruby, senior editor, who both worked so hard to make our job easier and free from worry. . . .

Patsy Love, Margie Buford, Debbie Garren, and Judy Pleasant, who worked with ALL those junior and sophomore pictures. . . .

Martin Rogers, who was there with a camera when no one else would venture out. . . .

Burnie Batchelor and Bill Smith, who were patient and understanding with not only taking pictures but also having them ready on tight deadlines. . . .

The News and Observer for many of its sports pictures. . . .

Smith Studios for their beautiful work on the senior portraits. . . .

Preston Coward and "Gilbert," who both were ready to travel on the spur of the moment. . . .

All of the administration for its patience and understanding when I was late or caused others to be late for picture making. . . .

Then there are the wonderful people at Edwards & Broughton Printers, especially Mr. Paul Hoch and Mr. Jeff Hill, who showed us the impossible could be done if we really wanted it. They always had time to talk with us or walk with us through the plant to see the LATIPAC '67 actually being put on paper. . . .

My family and friends who were expected to listen to my ideas and share my enthusiasm. . . .

And finally, only because she is the most important and dear to me, Miss Paschal. Without this lady's help and understanding, the annual would have never gotten to press. She wanted it to be a true expression of the students; therefore, she remained in the background, emphasizing our accepting the responsibility. Although she was in the background, we always knew where to go for a ready ear and useful ideas. . . .

The list of those who helped or had to listen to our ideas is endless. We thank all of you very much.

No one will ever know the work behind a book such as this until he gets to work with one. I know I can count this past year as one of the most memorable and enriching experiences of my life, and my only wish is that more people could have shared this experience with me.

I thank you all, for, really, Broughton is YOU. My wish for you now is that your life may be full, happy, and long.

Take care until we meet again. . . .

Dear Bobby,

I must say that you are the greatest Person I know! I hope it will stay like that forever! I hope that we never break up--- Never! Just think, we can stay together forever! I Love You and I'm sure together we can make it! Don't you? Remember all of the wonderful times we spent together? They couldn't be replaced with anything, except more Love! And how could you forget the wonderful times behind Brentwood? If it meant as much to you as it did it me, you could never forget! Oh yeah, I had a great time at the Queen of Hearts Dance! I guess the reason was because I was with you! I know the reason I had such a good time at the Senior Prom was because I was with you! Talking about the Senior Prom remember our walk through the Capital? There are so many things I could write about the wonderful things we have done, but there isn't enough room.

Just think almost two years of going steady! I hope you never get the feeling that you're to old for
